Melodious sounds of the 26-string Celtic folk harp, with and without the lilt of accompanying vocals, create an ambiance of peace, relaxation, and a wee bit of Irish joy whenever musician Janet Lee Kraft sits down to play. Kraft's harp and vocals have delighted audiences at gallery openings, memorials, churches, workshops and concerts in Litchfield and Fairfield Counties since her arrival on the East Coast in 2004. A sacred and instrumental music composer, Kraft has written and performed dozens of original songs for voice, harp, piano, and chorus. Her devotional chanting CD with vocal ensemble Soulfyre entitled "Come Home to Love" is available on her website. A solo CD of original devotional chants will be released in 2011.

Janet Lee Kraft is also an ordained interfaith minister with a thriving music and speaking ministry, and is the former music director of Unity in the Foothills in Torrington, Connecticut. Other accomplishments include inclusion of her original song, "Spirit Guide Me" in the Love Notes program from the Assoc. of Unity Churches in 1997. Additionally, in 2002 Kraft wrote and produced the positive affirmation CD, "Meditative Affirmations for Peaceful & Positive Living," which is also available on her website.
